Destination Point Conception

It's always an Adventure when you make the hike to Point Conception. You never know what the conditions will be when you get there. Conditions were great. Clean water very little loose eel grass or kelp. Found a nice trough at low tide, and started to fish it with the incoming tide. The perch were on the chew! Stopped counting after 30 fish. Nothing huge, but the majority of the perch were 12"-14". They ate the Lucky Craft 110 and the Big Hammer the best. As the tide got higher the eel grass and kelp came in with it. A big shout out to Mike Gilbert who joined in and made the hike all the way to the point
